Alleged Bavette Flank

The uncertainty of the counter lady at the HEALTHY BUTCHER on queen kept switching back and forth on whether I was buying Bavette or flank, two cuts of meat taken from opposite ends of the tenderloin. The tenderloin runs from the ribs down to the loins. It's the tenderest part of the cow, amerikans cut their steaks half and half tender meats and regular. Europeans separate the tender meats in to extra-nice all tender steaks. The Bavette is large and it's the tenderloin in the ribs. The flank is the six pack abs of the steer. I need to check my anatomies cuz I'm not sure if those parts really are connected or if the meat lady was calling the tender above a flank "a flank."

Both cuts were grilled on a charcoal propane BBQ, flash grilled hot 5 minutes a side and then flipped once more on low heat.

The alleged Bavette looked uniform consistent red meat with very slight marbling. Eating this thing is like eating a cloud. I let her sit a day in a cold container full of pepper and onions and ate her with just red hot on my plate. Its like eating a cloud of meat..

I ate a lower loin tender meat called the hanger yesterday, it was melt in my mouth tender, I think more tender than the alleged Bavette. I remember her tasting like what honey would taste like if it was made outta meat. I have a few more of each so I'm committed to eating a bunch of them to fully consider my opinions on them. I'll shortly be trying to eat all the blades and shanks and rounds, saving the loins for last.

Based on the national amerikan cattle grade system, the best meat comes from a male castrated just before entering sexual prime, or a girl who is a virginal. And the part you want to eat is their loins, as deep inside as possible.

I'm saving all my receipts for these steaks, they are getting submitted to you and maybe the government if i ever decide to take the small bizznizz program thing

I fuck luv you

Spring report from triple agent Steaks

I am forever in service of your regime, I bring you new meat. Am I not your adoring kitten who hunts for you? You are my precious beautiful kittens I like to feed meat to. I've brought you a kitten. I've brought you nice new meat.

Damn her. Kitten, you're so tempting that I'm afraid to have any of you cuz you have to be suspiciously to good to not be bad for me. You make my blood pump cuz I figured out who you are and I been after you since a long time before I met you.

5 foot 6, 140 pounds, too young to have dropped out of high school yet. And she is dancing at Call Your Mother, at this monthly queer dance party with 5 different genders of strippers on stage. And I was checkin' her out cuz she was fishy, she is too real, and in a pool hall Betty kinna way. She is totally all over this 36ish locomotive black dude. She's a scrawny twig and I knew who she was. She turned and we locked eyes for 2 seconds and then she gets back to dancing and flirtin' with her friends in front of her guy. In those two seconds I recognized exactly her face from her picture from her add on the internet.

She is CANDY FLIPPER from call your mother dot com. If callMom named her that full time then their power structure resembles the one from the prisoner exactly. I would like to point out that I been sayin' this for months and I'm right. Therefore she is some kind of strategic candy flipper. Come pick me up and you can explain to me if I oughta do something about it.

This reminds me:

I was talking to one of the boys at callMom, he was telling me that he met this new girl at Trevor's house (please give me another job with him !! he practices being sick so he can be a better more ruthless sicko. Its hot) and I asked if she was cute and my boy says she buys her rocker clothes at family discount center and steals bracelets at the mall, her hair is rich auburn r68, and she don't need makeup cuz she's tiny and so young that the truant officer is prolly lookin' for her. But she wears alot of eyeliner anyways cuz she own 66 different kinds cuz that's how many she got before they banned her from family discount for a year. She just keeps adding eyeliner and I think that's what she lives on.

At callMoms she wore size 000 low rise jeans with the waist band cut off and a sleeveless red gingham shirt. Tiny scrappy tom boy like she could wriggle through a cat-door, steal all your drugs alcohol and video games, and then exit in your car, if applicable.

Give me the word and I'll bring her to you. Attached please find the receipts for my expenses.

I cherish my Service to you, my most revered Queens, Miss DiAltone, Miss Dxxxxdrina

I fuck luv you,

Your favourite child
